Sir David AKERS-JONES, GBM, JP
*Former Chief Secretary,
Hong Kong Government*

Sir David Akers-Jones, KBE, CMG, GBM, JP was the Chief Secretary of Hong Kong from 1985 to 1987, and was briefly Acting Governor of Hong Kong. During his long career, Akers-Jones served in many important posts in the Government of Hong Kong, including Principal Assistant Colonial Secretary, Secretary for the New Territories, which was later retitled as "The Secretary for City and New Territories Administration". He also served as Secretary for Home Affairs and Chief Secretary, Acting Governor of Hong Kong from December 1986 to April 1987 and Chairman of the Hong Kong Housing Authority from 1987 to 1992.

He is currently Honorary Member of the Court, Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, Honorary Fellow of Brazen Nose College, University of Oxford, Distinguished Friend of Oxford, Honorary Doctor of Civil Law, University of Kent, Honorary Doctor of Laws, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, and Honorary Doctor of Social Science, City University of Hong Kong.